The Value of Education

Investing in education is the single most effective means of reducing poverty.

Girls and boys who learn to read, write and count will provide a better future for their families and countries. Education has the power to make the world a better place.

Education gives people critical skills and tools to help them better provide for themselves and their children.

Education helps people work better and create opportunities for sustainable and viable economic growth now and into the future.

Education reduces mother and child mortality and helps improve health.

Education encourages transparency, good governance, and helps fight corruption.
